24 Sep 2017 . Vertigo Gaming's Cook, Serve, Delicious! is one of my favourite and most played games ever. I can't even remember when I bought it on Steam but spending an hour with it made me crave an iPad version. I was glad to find an iPad version did exist and I had no use for the non touch version anymore.

13 Sep 2017 . I think my current 19 hours spent with Cook, Serve, Delicious 2 speaks for itself, but it is a really fun game. As with any new game there are plenty of kinks to work out, but the creator David Galindo has already updated it three times or more since its initial release and really listens to players about what.

6 Sep 2017 . It's hard to quantify how alien the world that restaurateurs inhabit are to those who've never worked in the food service industry. In all my years spent in fast food, American burger bars, and upscale Italian kitchens, there were some universal truths to be had: stress was expected, learning opportunities were.

4 Oct 2017 . I previously made a semi-exception to talk about Cook Serve Delicious – one of my favourite indie games for sure, but with a completely tenuous Local Multiplayer aspect (it has one – but it's a minimal afterthought and not that great). I'm also generally fairly positive about the games I include in LILMGOTW.
