Massarbetslösheten lamslår våra länder, var sjunde levande mänskliga svälter och i Europa görs utsatta invandrare till syndabockar. Under tiden åker 85 personer runt i en buss med halva världens tillgångar. Ska vi skratta åt allt, eller gråta? Russell Brand är bara en underhållare, en clown i roliga, röda kläder. Men som komiker undrar han varför vi inte märker när det skämtas på vår bekostnad. Simon Bank, Aftonbladet Fakta, humor och en påminnelse om att det är vi själva som har skapat en ojämlig värld och det vi själva har skapat kan vi också omskapa. Jeanette Wintersson, The Guardian Som originell komiker med blick för att visualisera den ekonomiska maktens absurdas orättvisa är han bitvis briljant. Sydsvenskan Den oefterhärmliga komikern Russell Brand vill att du ansluter dig till revolutionen. Har du, precis som han, fått nog av hur världen ser ut och fungerar? Frågar du dig själv varför en procent av världens befolkning äger nästan hälften av dess tillgångar? Upprörer du av att bankernas bonusar nådde rekordnivåer under ett år med extrem lågkonjunktur? Blir du arg av det faktum att företag som omsätter miljarder knappt betalar någon skatt? Har du, ärligt talat, förtroende för de folkvalda? Insiktsfullt, respektlöst och med mycket humor tar Russell Brand upp frågorna som många vill ha svar på. I denna ögonöppnande och underhållande bok tar sig Russel Brand an ämnen som ekologi, ojämlikhet, upplopp, finansiell härdsmälta och den totala bristen på tilltro till politiker. Med lika delar humor och passion uppmanar han sina läsare att skaka av sig apatin och börja ifrågasätta det rådande systemet. Det här är hans stridsrop. Det här är Russell Brands revolution.
